VOLUME 5, NUMBER 1, MARCH 1980

ROBERT J. WHELAN and ALLAN H. BURBIDGE: Flowering phenology, seed set and bird pollination of five Western Australian Banksia species	1
DAVID T. BELL and JOHN M. KOCH: Post-fire succession in the northern jarrah forest of Western Australia	9
R. J. RAISON: A review of the role of fire in nutrient cycling in Australian native forests, and of methodology for studying the fire-nutrient interaction	15
KEN C. HODGKINSON, GRAHAM N. HARRINGTON and GRAEME E. MILES: Composition, spatial and temporal viability of the soil seed pool in a Eucalyptus populnea shrub woodland in central New South Wales	23
BARRY J. MACAULEY and LAUREL R. FOX: Variation in total phenols and condensed tannins in Eucalyptus : leaf phenology and insect grazing	31
B. S. NIVEN: The formal definition of the environment of an animal	37
EDMUND WYNNDHAM: Environment and food of the budgerigar Melopsittacus undulatus	47
P. W. GEIER and D. T. BRIESE: The light-brown apple moth, Epiphyas postvittana (Walker): 4. Studies on population dynamics and injuriousness to apples in the Australian Capital Territory	63
W. STEPHENSON: Flux in the sublittoral macrobenthos of Moreton Bay	95
THESIS ABSTRACTS	117
BOOK REVIEWS	119

VOLUME 5, NUMBER 2, JUNE 1980

D. T. BRIESE and B. J. MACAULEY: Temporal structure of an ant community in semi-arid Australia	121
P. W. GEIER and D. T. BRIESE: The light-brown apple moth, Epiphyas postvittana (Walker): 5. Variability of demographic characteristics in field populations of southeastern Australia	135
W. STEPHENSON: Relationships of the macrobenthos of Moreton Bay to prawns and to abiotic factors	143
BARRY C. LONGSTAFF: The functional response of a predatory mite and the nature of the attack rate	151
J. P. BEUMER: Hydrology and fish diversity of a North Queensland tropical stream	159
K. G. WARDHAUGH: The effects of temperature and moisture on the inception of diapause in eggs of the Australian plague locust, Chortoicetes terminifera Walker (Orthoptera: Acrididae)	187
P. J. MORAN: Natural physical disturbance and predation: their importance in structuring a marine sessile community	193
I. R. NOBLE, G. A. V. BARY and A. M. GILL: McArthur's fire-danger meters expressed as equations	201
J. H. WILDIN and R. H. HALL: Replacement interaction diagrams in interspecific competition experiments	205
D. J. CARR, S. G. M. CARR and W. R. PAPST: Field studies of nitrogen fixation of Australian alpine plants and soils	211

R. A. CONGDON and A. J. MCCOMB: Productivity and nutrient content of Juncus kraussii in an estuarine marsh in south-western Australia	221
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR	235
THESIS ABSTRACTS	239
BOOK REVIEWS	241

VOLUME 5, NUMBER 3, SEPTEMBER 1980

W. STEPHENSON: Time-patterns of macrobenthic species in Moreton Bay	245
W. STEPHENSON and S. D. COOK: Elimination of species before cluster analysis	263
D. THIELE and WINSTON J. BAILEY: The function of sound in male spacing behaviour in bush-cricket (Tettigoniidae, Orthoptera)	275
R. W. JOHNSON: Studies of a vegetation transect through brigalow ( Acacia harpophylla ) forest in central Queensland	287
M. C. FELLER: Biomass and nutrient distribution in two eucalypt forest ecosystems	309
THESIS ABSTRACTS	335
BOOK REVIEWS	337

VOLUME 5, NUMBER 4, DECEMBER 1980

GRAHAM H. PYKE: The foraging behaviour of Australian honeyeaters: a review and some comparisons with hummingbirds	343
D. E. EVANS: Further studies on acclimatization to low temperatures in the grain weevils Sitophilus oryzae (L.) and Sitophilus granarius (L.)	371
G. McDONALD, I. W. McLAREN, G. P. SHELDEN and I. R. SMITH: The effect of temperature on the population growth potential of Culex annulirostris Skuse (Diptera: Culicidae)	379
J. S. BUNT and W. T. WILLIAMS: Studies in the analysis of data from Australian tidal forests ('Mangroves'). I. Vegetational sequences and their graphic representation	385
W. T. WILLIAMS and J. S. BUNT: Studies in the analysis of data from Australian tidal forests ('Mangroves'). II. The use of an asymmetric monothetic divisive classificatory program	391
H. M. BRASELL and D. A. GILMOUR: The cation composition of precipitation at four sites in far north Queensland	397
MARK WESTOBY and LEE BROWN: The effect of clipping on self-thinning in Trifolium pratense	407
A. GRASSIA: Estimating bark thickness in natural stands of Eucalyptus	411
R. E. PREBBLE and G. B. STIRK: Throughfall and stemflow on silverleaf ironbark ( Eucalyptus melanophloia ) trees	419
THESIS ABSTRACTS	429
BOOK REVIEWS	431
